LOCAL NEWS.

John T. Hague is in town from a surveying expedition.

Sheriff Hubbell is expected home this week.

St. George Creaghe, stockman from Springerville, came in town on Sunday last.

Mrs. J. L. Hubbell and family returned on Monday from a visit to Pueblo Colorado.

There was no baillie in town last Sunday night. Are our people forgetting to be festive?

Messrs. Parsons and Sweat passed through town the first of the week bound for the railroad.

Thomas N. Hinch, Cap. Smith and party, of Gallup, New Mexico, were visitors in town this week.

Mr. Quigley, of the Monarch, will regale his customers, with fresh oysters from the Chesapeake within the next week, if the weather keeps favorable. Yum-yum.

It seems that the right to assess railroad corporations is to be determined before the courts. It would be well if the question were settled forever and that speedily.

F. W. Nelson, of Springerville, was in town on Monday attending to business before the Clerk of the District Court, making final proof on his land entry.

Taxes are coming in slowly, but the time is approaching for delinquency and costs, we hope to hear that the Treasurer will be kept busy issuing receipts.

The new store of Lopez Brothers is fast nearing completion, and within a few days their tremendous stock of general merchandise will be exposed for sale on Stock Exchange square.

Nathan Barth returned from Springerville on Monday last, bringing with him young Jake Salzman, who had such a narrow escape from cremation at the conflagration in that town last week.

Dr. W. T. Dalby and Charles Beggs returned from Camp Verde the first of the week. They made the round trip by overland travel, and were absent from the county seat nearly two months.

We learn that Max Salzman, whose sad loss at Springerville we chronicled last week will, in the near future, open up at Holbrook, where we hope he may have better fortune attend his business operations.

Here we are at the very outset of winter, and our weather is as mild as May. Children are going to and fro barefoot, by our sanctum window, and they seem to be as happy and comfortable as if it were midsummer. Glorious climate this Arizona.

Mr. Lambson, our meat market man, whose advertisement appears to-day, keeps a splendid supply of beef and mutton. We notice that his supply of game is sufficient to fill every demand and gratify every taste. Quick sales and fresh supplies is his watchword.

Messrs. Hutchison & Markoy, photographers, have arrived and pitched their tent on Springerville avenue, adjoining McCormick's hotel. We have examined some specimens of their work and for excellence in design and perfection of the art photographic, it will compare favorably with that of the most celebrated galleries. Call on them early and avoid the crowd. Of course every family will have portraits of its members at home.

The Hon. Sumner Howard, late Chief Justice, Third Judicial District in this Territory, and Rush & Wells, have been retained by the County of Yavapai, to collect the tax for 1885, assessed on the property of the Atlantic & Pacific Railroad. It having been made manifest that the corporation will contest the right or legality of the assessment before the courts. The sooner these questions are settled the better it will be for all parties.

The laws make it obligatory on the School Trustees to see that every child in the various school districts attend school four months in each year. Are the Trustees diligent in the discharge of this duty. It is reported to us that many children are denied by their parents the privileges of our public schools in this district, and claim that they cannot afford to send them to school, when charges are made for their education. Let this matter be looked into by the proper officers.

Ebin Stanley, two young gentlemen by the name of Nelson, of Springerville, and John Swinburne, have just returned from a most successful hunting excursion, having brought in two bear, one fine elk, two black tail deer, and several antelope. And now we are wondering if we can pick up chips enough to prepare for our table the portion that shall probably be sent to the editorial kitchen. The Messrs. Nelson are connected with the forces of the Smithsonian Institute, and are preparing the skins of the bears and elk for transportation to Washington.

SAN FRANCISCO LETTER.

From a Pioneer Correspondent.

San Francisco Jottings---Sayings and Doings in the Metropolis---The Argonauts and Their New Hall, Etc., Etc., Etc.

In accordance with promise, my dear brother pioneer journalist, I herewith give you a kaleidoscopic view of local on dits in this city, since your visit a few days ago. The task is a pleasurable one, for did not we in days lang syne "fight, bleed and die" together in the then tented city of the plains?

Well---the weather has undergone a change, which is welcomed by all save amusement loving people and vendors of perishable commodities at street crossings. The rain has descended in torrents during the last twenty-four hours, and still Jupiter Pluvius keeps the windows of Heaven thrown wide open. Over six inches of water, against two inches and a half for last season at date. The sewers are beautifully flushed---no thanks to the City Fathers who have allowed them to be choked all summer. The city's death rate is diminishing, there being but 85 this week. During the corresponding week of 1884, over 100 corpses were interred at Lone Mountain.

Emma Nevada inaugurated the oriental palace of a theatre known as the "Alcazar" last evening. Such a magnificent display of toilettes, and such a jam of fashionable people have seldom been witnessed this side of the "Rockies." I forward you a graphic description of this temple of Thespis, with exterior and interior engravings of the building.

The Pioneers will dedicate their new hall on Fourth street in a few weeks. It is exteriorly the most showy edifice in all San Francisco. Total cost, including furniture, $200,000.

On the corner of Fourth and Market, adjoining the hall, Bonanza Flood is about breaking ground for a six story block of stores to cost $1,000,000. Washoe J. W. Mackay who owns the opposite lot, is going to follow suit, and erect a stone structure of equal dimensions, and nearly, if not quite, as costly. Mechanics and workmen are jubilant, for these improvements must give employment to thousands of the "sons of toil" during the present winter, which promises to be a severe one at present writing.

That massive pile---Odd Fellows' Hall---on the corner of Market and Seventh, nearly opposite the new City Hall, is completed, and the Order are moving their archives and furniture from the old hall on Montgomery street. This is another of the palatial structures of the city, and will cost when fully furnished $250,000.

And still another mammoth edifice, nearly finished, is the five story block of Murphy, Grant & Co., on the corner of Market and McAllister streets. Its total cost is $500,000. J. J. O'Brien has leased the lower stories, and will open their stock of dry goods on or before New Year's day.

I strolled through the photographic galleries of Tabor the other day. They are the most centrally located of any in the city, being on the corner of Montgomery and Market streets, directly opposite the Grand Hotel and Masonic Temple. Visitors from the Atlantic States and Europe, unite in pronouncing his portraits, and particularly his landscape and water views the most artistic, and elegantly executed of any collection to be seen in the galleries of Paris or New York. Of course apart from the skill and taste of the photographers, the beautiful climate of California is the "right bower" of the operator. When the St. Johnsonians come to the big city, they should by all means "take in" this grand exhibition.

The talk of the town is the imperial gift of Senator Stanford to the State of his Vina, Gridley and Palo Alta ranches. The property already valued at $5,500,000 is placed in the hands of a Board of Trustees, to be expended by them (or rather the income) for the founding and maintenance of the Leland Stanford, Jr., Memorial College or University. It is estimated that in a few years the property will be worth $10,000,000.

Ex-Senator Sharon's funeral was attended yesterday very largely by leading citizens. Now he has also made two liberal gifts to the city---one for a building or lake in the park of $50,000; and another of the like amount to the Orphan Asylums. His estate will "pan out" some $8,000,000 or $10,000,000---and mark my words, the virtuous and modest Sarah Althea will never get enough of it to buy a red flannel petticoat.

Sacramento river booming. Shop windows crowded with elegant holiday goods. Charley Crocker has just given $31,000 to the Boys and Girls Aid Society.

Your very readable and acceptable HERALD is placed on file in the Pioneer Hall to be perused by the old fossils.

That Edmonds' bill is working splendidly in emasculating the disciples of the Stallion, Brigham Young. If the balance not yet in limbo "don't vamoose the ranch" soon, they will be corralled to a dead certainty by the Federal authorities. Adios.

HENRY B. LIVINGSTON.
